MY LOCK DOWN DAYS

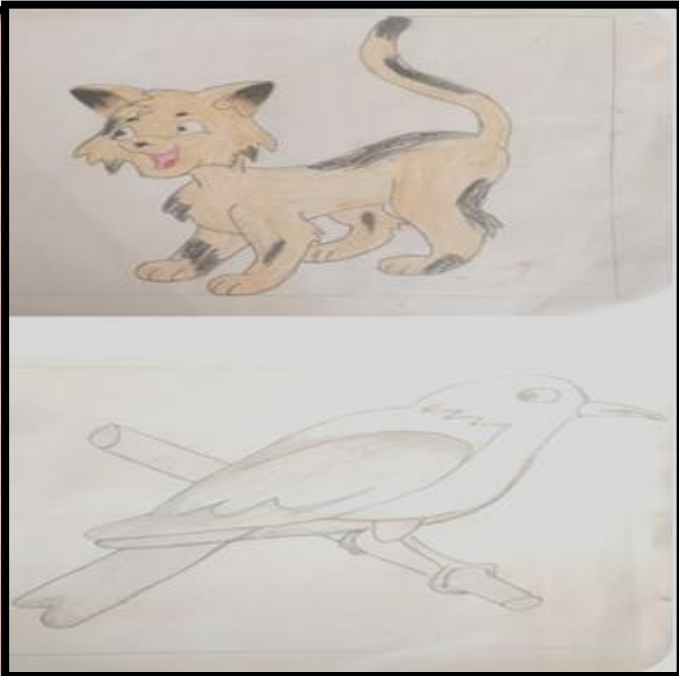

My lock down days were too boring. So I thought myself to glow my days in a worthy way. I started painting, drawing, planting flowers and vegetables, singing songs, writing short stories. Me and my friends of my neighbourhood learnt fishing. Me and my mother started experimenting new dishes and made my sister and father eat them. It was nice that I did some wonder from waste materials. I helped my mother to clean the house and I started riding bicycle and watching cricket matches that made cricket my favourite sport. I hope you also have done creative things and implemented innovative ideas that made yourselves better.

But it wasn't there
Where it used to be.
Across the road
Was a boy of my age.
Oh God! Has he to work hard
For a little wage?
The boy child suffers the cold
No study, no play,
Bearing hardships that ahead lay.
But why can't he study
And lead a life staying cool?
Why can't he play?
Why can't his life be
Bright as the sun
And childhood be a lot of fun?

Super Heroes Story

Mimi and Corner are Super heroes, nobody knows that because they become Super Heroes at night. When everybody sleeps, Mimi becomes Luna girl and Corner becomes Ronio. They save the day, by fighting with the Villains,. The Villains come in the night. One night,when they went to fight with night time villains, they saw something glowing like a star. Luna girl and Ronio ran towards the shining light. They saw a very beautiful Robot. They called it Rocky Robot from then. The Robot was also helping Luna and Ronio to defeat the night time Villains.

One night, they saw a Monster that was made by evil scientist Memoy. Every time Luna, Ronio and Rocky the robot defeated all the Villains. They thought that they can handle anything.

So they were not afraid. Rocky the Robot tried to make them understand that they cannot handle everything on their own. Then Corner said, "We are busy in defeating the Monster. Help us Rocky ". Then the robot said, "It's ok if you say so". Then Monster started attacking. They lost the fight and realised that they cannot handle everything. They said sorry to Rocky the Robot. Rocky shared his idea that Luna can fly towards the Monster and distract it. He told Ronio to tie the rope with his flash power. " Let's go for it". Then they won the fight.

A WALK DOWN THE MEMORY LANE

But every sweet time
Comes to an end
Cycles of happiness and sorrow repeat
For you and me
What got lost was 'us'

The deep scar still fresh
The happy memories still flush
Without you i am just a piece of flesh
Slowly my memory lane gets hazed
Is it the time that flew
Or is it the newly shed tears
That blurred my eyes?

Everything changed except one thing-hope
Hope is what I saw, what I see and What is left!

Cool breeze blue sky warm body
What a pleasant morning
With the voices of crickets and birds echoing
Feeling fresh
But feelings flush
Silent waves all across my flesh
World revolving
My mind too
To a dark past
Which was once bright
Let me get down the memory lane
To a world which was once ours
Voices of you and me
Still vivid in my brain
Sending chills down my vein
The beautiful moments we spent
Now a beautiful memory
The times of melancholy
Now a deep scar

GANESHA

In Hinduism, there are many gods. I have heard lot of stories about them. Some have snake in their neck. some have peacock feather in their hair. I like animals and birds very much. Among animals I like elephants the most. They are big, strong and have a loud voice. As my house is near Thriprayar Sri. Rama temple, I have got chances to see elephants in different styles. During festivals, they are seen wearing Jewellery, carrying umbrella and people. It is nice to see them. But sometimes I also think whether they are happy with all these extra fittings. I strongly feel that they would be happier when we let them free into the forests. This passion for elephants lead me to Lord Ganesha. One day, I got a book full of Ganesha pictures and I pasted them all over my house. Grandma had told me that Ganesha was the lord of Ganas, the Lord of wisdom, Intelligence and power. I love Ganesha.

Online classes

This year because of COVID 19, the schools started online classes.

At first, I was happy since we don't want to wake up at 6 am, miss the school bus (sometimes), and climb three floors to reach class. But then everything we did at school wasn't possible at home. We can't talk to friends, lacking physical activities, missed plenty of celebrations. Last year we had CCA activities, clubs, movie trips, book fairs etc. Most importantly; WE WERE TOGETHER. Some days I wish I were at school. Some say I am 'school-sick'. Other days I just wish school would open soon but I know it just wouldn't....
